

Employment Opportunities in Chisasibi and Whapmagoostui

Salary: $70257 to $91334

Also offered:

- In addition to salary, several premiums including an annual isolation premium of $10 015 to $17 652 depending on the family status and an annual retention and attraction premium of $6 000 to $10 750 depending on years of continuous service;
- Housing provided and moving and storage at the expense of the employer;
- 4 weeks of annual vacation;
- 10 days of healing each year;
- 3 to 4 annual return trips to your place of residence paid by the employer when hired from more than 50 km of the locality;
- Insurance Plans and Pension Plan of Personnel Management (PPMP).

For more information or to apply, please contact us at: Jobs.reg18@ssss.gouv.qc.ca

Coordinator of Uschiniichisuu

Reporting to the Chisasibi CMC Local Director, the incumbent contributes to the planning, organization, coordination and support for the delivery of Uschiniichisuu Miyupimaatisiun Services of the Chisasibi Community Miyupimaatisiun Center (CMC). The incumbent collaborates with the CMC Director and the other CMC Coordinators to provide healthcare and social services to the population. The incumbent serves as a liaison, coordination and support point amongst all concerned managements for the CMC Services. These responsibilities are for young adults (10 – 29 years old), their caregiver preventive and curative health care, infectious diseases, mental health and social services.

Coordinator of Awash and Uschiniichisuu

Reporting to the Whapmagoostui Director CMC, the incumbent contributes to the planning, organization, coordination and support for the delivery of the Awash and Uschiniichisuu Miyupimaatisiun Services of the Community Miyupimaatisiun Center (CMC). The incumbent collaborates with the Director CMC and the other CMC coordinators to provide healthcare and social services to the population. The incumbent serves as a liaison, coordination and support point amongst all concerned management for the CMC Services. These responsibilities are for the children (0-9 years old) and young adult (10-29 years old) and their caregiver preventive and curative health care, infectious diseases, mental health and social services.

REQUIREMENTS:

Education

- Bachelor degree in Nursing and member of the O.I.I.Q;
OR
- Bachelor degree in social work and member of the OTSTCFQ.

Experience:

- Five (5) years of experience in service/program planning, management or supervision in a current services multidisciplinary team setting. A specialization in a relevant area is an asset.